

These Terms and Conditions set out your commitment to FlyFish50 and its obligations to you when you have joined any FlyFish50 events

Payment

FlyFish50 does not take any payments from any person, club, trust, group or anyone else for any activities and advertising. All events are subject to the local organising body, be it River board or Trust, Angling club, association, etc who may require payments to Join their FlyFish50 event.

Bookings

When a booking / reservation is made through the FlyFish50 website it is made clear that the booking is direct with the providing group and organisation, and bookings are subject to the providers terms and conditions.

All children under the age of 16 are not able to make a booking / reservation without a parent or guardian, and must be accompanied by a parent for guardian during any event which they would like to join.

Cancellations

If an event is cancelled and the event providers makes the decision to cancel a coaching or guiding session due to extreme weather conditions beyond their control, for example;

- lightening, making casting dangerous
- very high winds making casting dangerous,
- water conditions/levels on rivers in spate or
- Global Pandemic
- or any other reason,

then a full refund minus costings should be given or an alternate date offered, whichever is acceptable to the client.

This is subject to the provider of the event in line with their terms and conditions.

Liability

FlyFish50 cannot be held liable for any events, cancellations, negligence at all. Each event is organised by a specific body, Trust, Board, Club, Syndicate etc and all liability lies with the event provider.

Insurance, risk assessments, health and safety objectives are outlined and provided by the organisers of each individual event.

The information on this website is reviewed and kept up to date on a regular basis, however, some changes may occur. No liability can be accepted for any errors, omissions or deletions.

Where events are fishing on third party estates / fisheries they are subject to the Terms and Conditions of that estate / venue, which will be available and sent to you by email prior to your experience.

Health & Safety

Your safety and that of all other members of the party is always our primary concern. FlyFish50 will provide Health and Safety guidelines for any organising body wishing to provide an angling development event, we will advice on good practice and protocols however the liability lies with the organiser of each event.

Insurance

FlyFish50 recommend all guests ensure they have adequate travel insurance to include baggage loss or damage, personal possession loss or damage.

All clients must ensure they are covered by appropriate insurances for the duration of their experience for any events and the type of activities undertaken.

Insurances must cover cancellations and curtailments, medical & emergency expenses (including repatriation), flight cancellations, personal accidents, injuries and death.

FlyFish50 events provides are expected to have all necessary insurance for their angling development projects.

